

Imagine the world had no trees, how would the world be?
What role do trees play in our lives? Why are they important?
And what different types of trees do you know about?

