

Renewable Energy Facts

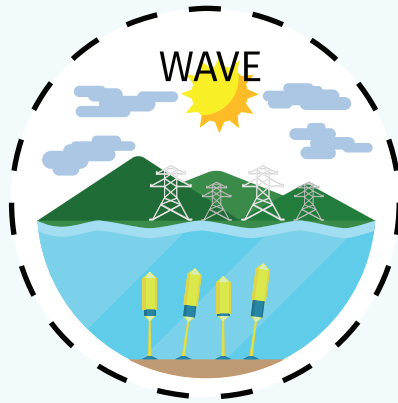

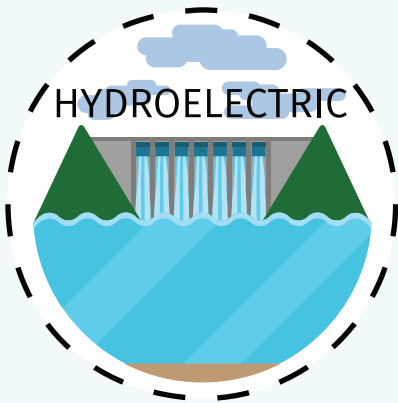

Cut out all circles and match the renewable energy sources to their definition.

I'm built across fast-flowing rivers and I'm the best way of sorting electricity.

I provide energy through turning the heat coming out of Earth's core into electricity.

I provide energy through storing heat and light from the sun.

I provide energy through the motion of waves.

I have a kinetic energy that powers wind turbines to provide electricity.

I provide energy during the rise and fall of tides.

Renewable Energy Facts