

Castle Construction

The two castles below have been constructed out of different materials. Compare the materials and think about what other elements could be added to the construction.

Stone

Mortar